

Open Call for Visiting Artist Poster Design

Many of you know the Visiting Artist series which is organized each semester by the Visual Arts Department at the Civic Square Building. This coming Spring semester we will have another exciting schedule including various artists, critics and curators such as Mickalene Thomas, Dana Schutz, Tim Eitel, Dana Frankfort, Martha Rosler, Joseph Wolin and others.

What we are missing at this point is an official poster for the upcoming VA lecture series. Thus we decided to initiate an Open Call for a design for the next poster. The prize for the selected design:

The winner will get to choose one Visiting Artist for an individual crit.

Here are some guidelines for the poster design:

The poster must include: the time and location of the lectures, each artist's name and the day they will give a talk in Room 117 at CSB.

See the separate document for all the text to be included.

It is entirely up to you how to design the poster. Keep in mind that it is mainly for informational purposes -- you want people to be able to get all the important information at one glance which does not mean that you cannot be inventive about what to show and how to integrate all the information for this poster.

The deadline for submissions is the 12th of January. Submissions after the 12th will not be accepted!

Send only ONE design per person.

Limit file size to 5MB and save as JPG.

Send to vaposterdesign@gmail.com

Do not forget to include your full name with your submitted email.

The winner will be announced on the 18th of January.

Enjoy and good luck!
